

Bullet list for Q & A

KRFL 2010 Sebring event

- Families that have their own transportation and can cover the cost of their room will be top on the list. Room cost is under $60.00 if booked through us.
- Families that have NEVER been or who have a child currently in treatment, or within one year of treatment will have all expenses covered except for transportation.
- First applications received will have top priority. (get your application in quick)
- These restrictions will be reduced as additional funding is available. (i.e. if we have another angel show up all restrictions could be removed)
- You need to be there as early Friday as possible 7:00 to 8:00 AM.
- You MUST be signed in, registered with name tag, arm band, and receive orientation in order to ride in the racecar Friday morning at 10:00.
- Ride Procedures have CHANGED, you must attend orientation at 9:00 to find out where you go, what group you will be in, and have your questions answered at that meeting.
- If you wish to stay in Sebring on Thursday night we can arrange a discounted room for you at the Quality Inn for under $60.00 if it is booked through us because of the group rate and tax status. We are NOT paying for Thursday night's room.
- Attendance at Saturday night's banquet is required, no rides on Sunday without attendance at the banquet. Meals will be outstanding, special speaker, DJ with dance music and lots of fun.
- NO food may be removed from the banquet room without permission of Mr. Martin MacKay of the McGruff organization who is donating all the food.
- You will need "full" toe shoes, (read NO flip-flops allowed), long pants and your KRFL t-shirt in order to ride or gain access to the "Hot Pits" on each day NO exception.
- Do not bring roller shoes, skates, bikes, scooters, or any transportation except a wheel chair or your feet. This is a racetrack and you will be in the paddock area and hot pits with racecars driving through and they may not be able to see a child.
- Do bring sun screen, lawn chairs, sun hats, umbrellas, and all medicine required for child.
- You will have time to return to the motel before the banquet to clean up and change if you wish, so bring something to wear to the banquet, T-shirts not required at banquet.
- Group photo will be taken on Saturday after lunch.
- We will have an RN on site.
- Direct questions to 239-945-3333 between 9:00 AM and 6:00 PM.
